Semester 2 Thrust area: Inspiration, Motivation & Ideation

Quarter 3

Theme	Research Paper – Inspiration, Motivation & Ideation
Activity Name	Research: Ideation
Mode of Conduct	Offline
Level of Activity	Level 2
Participants (Online / offline)	Maximum participation from students across all years (FY to Final Year + MCA), faculty members, and research-interested learners.
Description	Date: 28 January 2026 Venue: 008 Participants: Approximately 80 attendees Speakers: Dr. Fitri Yakub-An Executive Committee Member of the IEEE Malaysia Kuala Lumpur Subsection, joining via Google Meet, and a researcher at MJIIT with strong research experience. Dr Sudhir Dhage Dr Pramod Bide The IEEE Computer Society SPIT conducted a session, "How to Define a Research Problem," at Sardar Patel Institute of Technology to introduce students to research fundamentals and academic writing, highlighting the value of research for undergraduates. Focus Areas: • Identifying research problems and gaps • Writing technical papers using IEEE standards • Tools like Overleaf • Understanding conferences, submissions, and peer review Key Outcomes: • Better awareness of research methodology • Clearer understanding of paper structuring • Increased motivation for research activities 